

MID-INTERNSHIP EVALUATION

Part I: Intern Self Evaluation

Instructions: You must schedule a mid-internship evaluation with your preceptor and the professor managing the internship to be held when you have completed 75 hours of the internship rotation. It is your responsibility to schedule the evaluation meeting with your preceptor. It is also your responsibility to provide your preceptor with a blank mid-internship evaluation form for them to fill out when you schedule the meeting. You must complete the Mid-Internship Checklist Form and provide it to your preceptor at the mid-internship evaluation meeting.

What do you perceive as the most challenging areas of improvement that you need to work on for the remainder of the internship?

What are your expectations for the remainder of this internship in terms of new knowledge you would like to gain and/or skills that you would like to improve?

Is there anything else that you want to learn more about that has not been covered up to this point in the internship?

Part II: Preceptor Evaluation of Intern

The intern must schedule a mid-internship evaluation meeting with you and the intern's professor who manages the internship rotation. This is to be held when the intern has completed 75 hours of the internship rotation, unless you request to have the evaluation be done prior to that time.

Please provide written comments either during or after the mid-internship evaluation meeting that the student has scheduled with you.

It is the student's responsibility to:

- x Schedule the meeting between you and the TMCC professor.
- x Provide TMCC professor with the original signed mid-internship evaluation within one week after the mid-internship evaluation meeting.
- x Retain one copy of the signed form for their binder/portfolio.
